Q: “Is it from the Sunnah that we say, Alee Karama Allaahu Wajhahu (May Allaah make noble his face)?”

A: “It has not been established that we specify Alee with (Karama Allaahu Wajhahu) (May Allaah make noble his face) or (Alayhis-Salaam) (upon him be peace); however, it doesn't reach the extent of bid'ah (religious innovation) as for (Alaihis-Salaam) then it is found in "Al-Bukhaaree" and the "Musnad of Ahmad". The best of which to be followed is Alee (Radi Allaahu 'Anhu) like his brothers from amongst the companions and we say, Alee (Radi Allaahu 'Anhu).”
